

EXECUTIVE ORDER

06-03

January 30, 2006

CONTINUATION OF EMERGENCY PRESCRIPTION DRUG RELIEF

WHEREAS, on January 11, 2006, I signed an Executive Order requiring the Secretary of the Executive Office of Health and Human Services and the Acting Director of the Department of Human Services as well as other affected agencies to provide certain supplemental assistance to senior citizens and disabled individuals who are eligible for benefits under both Medicaid and Medicare (“dually eligible beneficiaries”) under the Medicare Modernization Act, Part D;

WHEREAS, the provisions of that Executive Order were to expire on January 31, 2006, unless modified by subsequent Executive Order;

WHEREAS, the federal government still has not completely addressed its failure to process prescription benefits for dually eligible beneficiaries; and

WHEREAS, pharmacies in Rhode Island continue to experience problems in processing the sales of covered prescription drugs to dually eligible beneficiaries.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DONALD L. CARCIERI, pursuant to the powers contained in the Rhode Island General Laws, including but not limited to Chapter 30-15 and by virtue of the authority vested in me as Governor of the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations, do hereby order as follows:

Executive Order 06-03

January 30, 2006

Page 2

1. That the provisions of Executive Order 06-01, Emergency Prescription Drug Relief, shall continue to remain in full force and effect until March 2, 2006 unless extended, revoked or modified by Executive Order.

So Ordered:

Donald L. Carcieri

Dated: 1/30/06